2. Boxer and Promoter understand and agree that the EBC European Championship Contest, as sanctioned by the European Boxing Council (EBC), and the designation of a boxer as the EBC European Champion are titles which are the property of, and belong exclusively to, the EBC, and are not rights, vested or otherwise, held, owned or enjoyed by boxer, except as provided in the EBC rules, and further, that the EBC reserves the right, in its discretion and pursuant to its rules, to suspend or withdraw recognition of any champion in the aforesaid weight division, or to not sanction the fight as being for the European Boxing Council recognised European Championship title.

3. The championship Contest will be conducted in compliance with and governed by the rules of all applicable boxing commissions having jurisdiction over the Contest. As long as the commission is recognised by the European Boxing Council (EBC), the EBC will defer to the local rules, however, the EBC will insist that the Unified Rules and not the local rules govern the Contest. In order to obtain and receive EBC sanction for the Bout, the EBC Rules Governing Championship Contests (“the Rules”) and the “Rules for EBC European Championship and Elimination Contests” (the “Contest Rules”), which are all incorporated hereby and made a part of this agreement, will be followed with respect to the Contest.

The Boxer and Promoter agree that they will comply with all EBC Rules and that violation of any of the Rules may result in withdrawal of sanction of the Contest, disqualification of the Boxer, loss of the EBC European Championship title, the lowering of the Boxer in the ratings, or other penalties as provided under the Rules. Boxer is aware of and agrees to comply with all EBC European Championship defence obligations as provided in the EBC Rules.

4. As full compensation for all claims and demands and for the services and performances to be rendered by Boxer hereunder, Promoter shall pay Boxer, and Boxer agrees to accept the sum of € _____ Euro (€ _____ .00) as Boxer’s Gross Purse as defined in EBC Rule 2.B. Boxer shall pay his promoter, manager, trainer, etc. from the gross purse paid by Promoter.

5. Promoter agrees to comply with EBC Rule 10.F.1. And will provide for a minimum of three (3) round trip coach air travel to the site of the Contest (unless local to the fighter), accommodations for not less than three (3) persons for four (4) nights, and payment for all required visas, and for the reasonable cooperation of the contestants to promote the Contest. Reasonable cooperation may include, but is not be limited to, those pre fight events required by the winning promoter’s contracts with broadcasters, site owners and sponsors.

6. Boxer understands that, pursuant to the EBC Rules, a sanction fee in the amount of one percent (1%) of Boxer’s gross purse as defined in EBC Rule 2.B., including amounts received for training expenses and monies paid to Boxer’s manager, promoter, etc., is due and owing to the EBU. Boxer agrees that the aforesaid sanction fee will be withheld by Promoter from the purse otherwise payable to Boxer for the Bout, and paid to the EBC by the Promoter. Boxer and Promoter agree that the Bout will not be recognized as an EBC European Championship Contest if the aforesaid sanction fee is not paid in full at or prior to the Contest. The aforesaid sanction fee shall be net and free of any local national or state income or other tax obligations. In the event that such tax obligations exist, Boxer understands that Promoter will deduct additional sums from the purse payable to Boxer fully to cover and pay any such taxes.

7. Boxer agrees to submit to such medical and anti-doping tests required by the local commissions and/or under the EBC Contest Rules and understands and agrees that he may be disqualified, fined, suspended or otherwise disciplined if he fails to take such tests or if the results of his anti-doping test are positive. Boxer also agrees that he will not take, imbibe or have administered to him any of the drugs prohibited by the EBC or any other drugs that will or could possibly affect his performance in the ring, or physical and mental capabilities and represents that he has not done so during the six (6) months prior to the date of this contract.

8. The parties acknowledge that the EBC reserves the right to withdraw sanction of the Bout as an EBC recognized Championship Contest if Boxer refuses or fails to submit the above mentioned reports and documents or to submit to anti-doping or medical tests.

9. The parties agree that, in order to obtain sanction as an EBC Championship Title Contest, the non-scoring referee and the three judges for the Contest will be selected, designated, and approved by the EBC in accordance with the EBC Rules and in cooperation with the local commission where the fight is held.

10. Each Boxer has the right to choose his brand and model of gloves subject to the approval of the EBC and the local commission. Each Boxer will advise the Promoter of the brand and style of gloves to be used at least three weeks prior to the scheduled Contest. The Promoter will provide the requested and approved gloves for the Contest for each Boxer in factory sealed packaging at the Rules meeting. The parties agree that in no event will the weight of the gloves be in violation of, or contrary to, the weights stated in the EBC Contest Rules and the rules of the local commission.

11. Boxer agrees to cooperate and assist Promoter in the publicising, advertising and promoting of the Contest, and agrees that he will arrive at the site of the Contest at least _____ days prior to the scheduled date of the Contest, including participating in press conferences as reasonably scheduled by Promoter at Promoter's expense.

12. Boxer represents, warrants and agrees that he is free to enter into this Agreement and has not heretofore entered into, and will not prior to the Contest, enter into any contracts or agreements which might interfere with the performance by Boxer of his obligation under this contract, and that he is not a party to any pending claims, litigations or impediments that might affect the obligations and rights of the parties under this Agreement.

13. Promoter represents and warrants that he is, or prior to the Contest will become, an EBC duly registered promoter and in that regard will pay all the EBC yearly membership fees and fight promotional fees in accordance with the EBC fee schedule, and that he holds a valid boxing commissions promoter's license from a recognized boxing jurisdiction

14. In the event that Promoter and Boxer have any disagreement or controversy with respect to this contract, Boxer and Promoter understand and accept, in good faith, to be bound by the Rules and rulings of the European Boxing Council (EBC).

15. The Promoter will ensure that there will be a minimum of one ambulance and two doctors present at the Contest at all times.

16. The Promoter shall pay the premiums for life and hospital insurance policies with respect to the Contest and the card as required by the local commission.

17. The Boxer agrees to enter the ring for the Contest displaying the championship belt (if he is the recognised EBC European Champion), and to participate in any championship belt ceremony.

18. All visas and other governmental documentation necessary for Boxer to participate in the Contest shall be the responsibility of the Promoter, provided, however, that Boxer shall fully and timely cooperate in the obtaining of such visa.

19. This contract shall also be signed by Boxer's duly authorised manager, if he has a current valid Manager - Boxer contract that has been registered with his local commission, federation and/or the European Boxing Council (EBC).

20. Boxer agrees to engage in a good faith exhibition of his skills and to compete to the best of his ability and to immediately disclose to the EBC and to the Promoter if any impediment should arise to his doing so, including but not limited to any injury.

21. The EBC will not recognise the Contest as being for the EBC European Championship until the President and Championships Chairman of the European Boxing Council (EBC) have approved this contract.

22. Boxer and Promoter may voluntarily agree to additional terms and conditions respecting the Bout, but in no event shall such additional terms and conditions be in conflict with or contrary to the contractual terms stated hereinabove and the Rules of the EBC. In the event a local commission form of contract is required, Boxer agrees to
